Where the Cafe meets the Spa.
Luxury hand and body care

Where Ritual Meets Relaxation

HIGHS is a luxury hand, foot, spa and skincare brand inspired by the awakening properties a cup of coffee can have on the body and mind. A bespoke experience to indulge the senses, HIGHS is the brainchild of beauty insider and coffee connoisseur, Kelly Cheng.

Decades of Expertise

Kelly's high-pressure job as a regional sales manager for Yves Saint Laurent Beauty, required frequent international trips. To help relieve stress, she had a daily ritual that began with an energizing cup of coffee, which she would sip slowly, letting the savory richness of the flavor envelop her senses. More than just a drink, it was an experience — self-connection at sunrise.
